

offsite

James Clar

Thursday, May 12, 2005 - 6 to 9 PM

Remote Lounge

327 Bowery (2nd St.) New York City

KICK OFF NEW YORK DESIGN WEEK 2005 WITH CORE77

James Clar is a lighting and installation designer working from New York and Tokyo. His work explores the properties of light to create dynamic forms and new methods of communication, while fusing art theory with design and technology.

James was resident artist at Eyebeam Atelier, as well as Benetton's Fabbrica facility in Italy. His work has been shown at the Milan Triennial, the New Museum, and the Tokyo Metropolitan Museum of Photography, and featured in Shift, Metropolis, Azure, Tokion, and I.D.

Musick courtesy of los P.bears.
Complimentary bar following the presentation.